

WINE ONLINE .ie

To whom it concern

WineOnline.ie is pleased to be associated with Fastway Couriers since 2002, Fastway Couriers (Ireland) is a privately owned franchised business which is now present in nine Regional Franchise territories within the Fastway Ireland network - eight in the Republic of Ireland and one in Northern Ireland. Thirteen depots currently provide next day local and national courier services for up to 30 kgs at consistently low prices.

We are able to offer our clients a fast, reliable and efficient next day delivery service. Our wine arrives at its destination in prime condition which encourages many who receives a gift of wine to become a customer of Wineonline. Without Fastway Couriers this would not be possible.

We have always found the couriers to be courteous and kind and going out of their way to arrange a suitable time for delivery even during the busy season.

Earlier this year we started offering our clients a UK delivery service which already has proved to be fast and efficient and has given us a wider market in which to develop our business.

Being able to track and trace the parcels online is another attraction and a copy of the Proof of Delivery can be e mailed to the sender.

If you are thinking of using Fastway couriers please feel free to give us a call to verify the above.

Best Regards

Anne Mullin .
