

Sales Representative

This is your opportunity to join one of Ireland's fastest growing freight couriers and franchise organisations, Fastway Couriers the world's largest courier franchise.

We are currently recruiting a team of area sales representatives who will be working within the Dublin region to identify potential B2B customers and sell our courier services.

Your success will be rewarded with:

- a good basic salary
- a car allowance
- an uncapped commission structure

If you are dynamic, motivated and a forward thinking sales professional, then this could be the role for you!

If you have a demonstrable high performing sales track record, a positive work ethic and have the ability to work with a team and empathise with customer needs, then you could be the person we are looking for.
