

From retail sales to sales representative

Are you ready to make the jump from retail sales to a sales representative role?

Fastway Couriers (South West), has been established for over 4 years. Based in the South West area, there is a position currently available on the sales team.

If you've got a proven track record in retail sales and an outgoing positive personality, we're prepared to give you comprehensive training and a constant supply of sales leads to get you off to a great start as a sales representative.

Working a five day week during standard business hours you'll have plenty of variety in your day as you establish new business for the company, and sell extra services to established customers. You'll be joining a highly successful organisation with a well established market niche and competitive service to offer in the marketplace.

An extremely generous commission scheme operates from day one on all sales you make, and a corporate uniform is provided. You will need to provide your own car.
